IS IT KID CARROLL?

The St. Louis Police Suspect That He Is Wanted There for Murder.But Marshal Collins Thinks They Are On the Wrong Trail.

* "Kid" Carroll is wanted on a charge of murder in St. Louis. Carroll, or a man going by that name, was only a few weeks ago sent to Eddyville to serve one year for grand larceny. He was charged with being a member of the Frank gang of shoplifters, and got off with the lightest sentence of any tried, the other two getting three years each.

Carroll, the real Carroll, is charged with the murder of Chris Masterson, who kept a saloon on Elm street in St. Louis in 1895. On the night of April 29th, Masterson discovered a man in his saloon tapping the till. He attempted to capture the thief, but the latter drew a gas pipe and mallet from beneath his coat and struck the saloon keeper on the head with it. His skull was split open and he died the next day. It was known then that Carroll was the murderer, but it is claimed that Chief of Police Harrigan, of St. Louis, who was an intimate friend of Carroll's father, Choctaw Carroll, keeper of the workhouse, did not desire to catch him.

Carroll escaped, but was shot by the police, and a wound was troubling here, and he was at one time discharged from jail on the recommendation of the county physician and would have made his escape had it not been for Marshal Collins, who caught him while he was preparing to take his departure on a freight train at the "Y."

When Carroll left St. Louis, he went to Cairo, Ill., where he was hotly pursued by the chief there. He went to Cairo on a shanty boat, and when he left there came to Paducah. Here Detective Wickliffe got on his trail, it is said, being told by the chief at Cairo that there was a reward of $125 for his arrest. He wrote Chief Harrigan but received no reply. It is supposed that the chief did not want Carroll caught.

Marshal Collins received two telegrams from Chief Campbell, of St. Louis, last night, but he does not believe that the man in the penitentiary is the right one. It is said that the real name of the man who goes by the name of Carroll, and who is now in the Eddyville penitentiary, is Haley. This being the case, the St. Louis police and papers are on the wrong trail. It is not likely that a man wanted so near for murder would be going by his right name, and for this reason the chief's name is likely not Carroll, but this is probably just one he has assumed.

DOG TAGS.

It has always been contended that there were hundreds of dogs in Paducah that were never taxed. This year the entire number of tags bought by the city have been used, and the city today had to telegraph for more in order to supply the demand. This is because the war has been vigorously prosecuted all over the city, and everybody who has a dog knows it is economy to pay the tax, for the tax saves a fine.

The Much Vaunted Cadiz Fleet is Broken Down and Harmless—Last of Spain's Once Boasted Navy.

SPAIN'S POWER ON THE SEA BROKEN.

London, June 21.—At the launching of the battleship Albion this morning at Blackwell on the Thames the back wash from the launching broke the staging which held the spectators, and three hundred were thrown into the Thames. It is believed that fifty persons were killed. None of the victims were prominent people.

Later:—Thirty bodies have thus far been recovered. The total loss of life is unknown.

THE FLEET GOES BACK.

London, June 21.—Gibraltar dispatches confirm the report that Cam-ara's fleet has returned to Cadiz.
The machinery of one vessel had broken down, and the ship had to be towed into port. The general opinion is that the fleet is unworthy and will never be sent far from home.

MORE PRISONERS.

New York, June 21.—The steamer
Algonquin arrived today with ten Spanish prisoners, comprising the captain and the crew of the bark Maria Dolores which was recently captured by the Minneapolis. The Spaniards will be sent home.

WILL CARRY SUPPLIES.

Washington, June 21.—The auxiliary cruisers Yale and Harvard, which are now at Newport News, will be detailed to carry stores and troops to the fleet and army at Santiago.

MAY BE ANOTHER CALL.

Washington, June 21.—It is expected that a third call for volunteers will be made as soon as the men are mustered in under the second call.
A long season of training is deemed advisable. Maj. Gen. Merritt is to have a total of 23,000 men in the Philippines and 8,000 more men will be sent to reinforce Maj. Gen. Shafter at Santiago. While it is believed the Porto Rico army will also be larger than heretofore contemplated.
It is believed the third call will be for 100,000 men.

BICYCLE CIRCUIT.

Quite Probable That the New Plan Will Be a Success.

Mr. J. J. Read is in receipt of a clipping from Mr. W. H. Pickens, southern representative of the Monarch Cycle Co., in regard to the bicycle circuit he has been organizing, which now seems a success.

He was in Paducah a couple of weeks ago arranging the financial preliminaries, and now has everything ready to start. The cities to be included if the circuit is opened will be Paducah, Owensboro, Henderson, Ky., Memphis, Birmingham, and Atlanta. The opening will be at Atlanta on July 19.

DUG UP AGAIN.

Workmen were engaged today in digging up the water pipe under the dirt piled into the main sewer and excavation made by the collapse a few nights ago. The pipes became detached after the cave-in, and had to be dug up again.

SHORT OF STAMPS.

Washington, June 21.—The law cannot be gotten ready by July 1, when the law goes into effect. The date of the law's enforcement will probably be postponed.

Gazette's Paris correspondent telegraphs his paper that the question of negotiating for peace has been a subject of correspondence between some of the European governments for the last few days, and that most important developments are expected in the next few days.

the Spanish Ministry has warned his colleagues that if Hobson and his swer for.

grand jury. Eight were for gaming, and the others for other offenses.

business in the past few days:

Commonwealth vs. Fred Warren, cutting in sudden heat and passion, agreed fine, $75.

Santiago.

EMBARKATION WILL BE RAPID.

Spanish Prisoners Arrive at New York—The Yale and Harvard

Fleet at Santiago.

OTHER MOVEMENTS OF OUR SHIPS.

New York, June 21.—A World's Washington special says:—The government has been advised by the Guantanamo cable that the landing of the troops began today covered by a brisk fire from the ships.

Scripps-McRae Service.

Off Santiago, June 20.—The transports bearing General Shafter's army of invasion arrived here at ten o'clock today (Monday). Admiral Sampson and General Shafter are now together discussing a landing place.
The place will be ten miles above or about ten miles below Santiago, or at Guantanamo, which is forty miles from Santiago.

As the roads in Cuba are but little more than paths, it is probable that the landing will be made as near Santiago as possible.

When the disembarkation takes place it will be accomplished more quickly than the embarkation, as all the transports can be unloaded at the same time.

The voyage of the army from Tampa was uneventful. A few cases of measles and about a dozen cases of typhoid fever have been reported.
The soldiers are in high spirits, and are anxious for the embarkation to begin.

M'KINLEY KNOWS IT.

Washington, June 21.—It is rumored at the war department that the president has been notified of Gen.
Shafter's arrival off Santiago with his army.

schools, Misses Desha, Quarles, Parker and Henderson, and of the colored,
Mrs. Hibbs and Sallie Steele.

Of the white teachers three of the needed on account of the increase in the schools, while the other is to take Miss Ewell's place.

Miss Mamie Noble will be assistant to the assistant high school teacher.
The other teachers will be placed as before, it is more than likely. The board does not usually assign places before August.

Scripps-McRae Service.

Atlanta, June 21.—Twenty-seven of the negro soldiers who were wounded in the recent riot at Tampa today arrived at McPherson barracks for medical treatment. They declare that forty negroes were killed and over one hundred were seriously wounded in the riot.

LAMP-POSTS SOLD.

The Gas Company Taking Them Down—A Good Improvement.

The mail boxes that have ever since mail boxes began to be used in Paducah adorned the lamp-posts, will now all have to be taken down. In fact many of them have already been taken down.

The occasion of this is that the Gas Co., has sold its lamp-posts, and they will all be removed. There are about three hundred in the city, but only about 75 mail boxes have been attached to them. The boxes will all be placed on the city's electric light poles.

TUESDAY, JUNE 21, 1898.

UNCLE SAM asked his people for a little loan of two hundred million dollars, and was offered five times that amount, or a round one billion.

With $200,000,000 of government bonds owned by the American people, in amounts of from $20 to $500, Mr. W. J. Bryan must be careful what he hereafter says about bondholders. Mr. Bryan has been accused to refer to bondholders as "unpenitentiary thieves."

The army rifles made now-a-days give a fellow little chance to dodge or shield himself. The velocity and penetrating force of the small steel bullet is something wonderful to our old-time ideas of guns. A tree 18 inches through affords a man no protection. The ball will cut its way entirely through the tree and come out on the other side with sufficient force to kill the man standing behind it.

The bond applications of the American people will, it is estimated, foot up fully one billion dollars, five times the amount called for; and it is believed that the American people would increase their offer five times and take five billions, if the government should need that amount. This splendid evidence of financial strength and popular prosperity will impress European nations as much as the prowess of American arms.

The city treasurer's report shows a cash balance in the treasury of $19,700 after all debts were paid, $13,000 of this being to pay the balance on the sewerage system as the work progresses; the question now naturally arises, what is the necessity of another levy of ten cents for sewerage? The levy last year covered all the cost of sewerage; it amounted to twenty thousand dollars. The contract for the sewerage was a few dollars over seventeen thousand dollars. There was a balance of nearly three thousand dollars to pay for superintending the work, which should have been ample. The people will expect the present council to show where the ten cent levy goes to, and what department consumes it.

There is quite an effort being made to popularize the idea that the United States should keep a standing army of 100,000 or more. With the fate of France under militarism, we ought to learn something. A republic is a nation governed by the people. Where standing armies are necessary to government in time of peace, the people do not rule, but the army does. The directing power of the army is always an unknown quantity, and is either a despot or a revolutionist. When force governs there is no freedom. The army governs, the people do not. A large standing army in time of peace is utterly inconsistent with the freedom of the people. If the ballot rules there is no need of an army. If the army rules there is no need of the ballot.

The elder Letter was participant in the effort to hold and keep wheat at exorbitant prices and starve the poor, and no sympathy goes out to him, when he has to settle the millions of loss brought about by the machinations of his boy. Wheat, since the close of Letter's deal, has gone off 10 cents and this means another loss of another million. So the boasted $35,000,000 of the old man, will have to pay about $8,000,000 of loss for the plunging Joseph, who, with all the millions to back him, could not make a dollar, but on the contrary lost one-fourth the capital at his command. If Joseph will now operate a peanut stand for twelve months, he may learn one or two of the fundamental principles of trade and business. He has experience enough now to teach him that while luck often follows a fool, it does not do so in every instance—his own for example. He may now understand that a piece of machinery may be perfect, yet that he cannot operate it because it looks simple, but that it requires one educated in mechanism to get the work or profit out of it. He is in a condition to know that while vast capital is immense power, that it requires great brains and a master hand to guide or control it. He can appreciate, if he has any sense at all, which is doubtful or he would have known it long ago, that wealth alone is powerless, without skill to handle it, and that it melts like snow under a June sun, when handled by one not educated to careful business. A Harvard foot ball education does not fit a man for the board of trade or for business.

OUR PEOPLE ARE GETTING RICH.
New York World.
Only twice in history have the exports of agricultural products from the United States reached the value of $700,000,000.
For the fiscal year about to end they exceed $800,000,000, and will probably reach $835,000,000.
They exceed the exports of the record breaking year 1893 by more than $180,000,000. They exceed last year's exports by more than $150,000,000. They exceed those of the year before by more than $250,000,000.
All this is money dug out of the soil and poured into the laps of our farmers. At the same time our exports of manufactured products have increased in still greater proportion, while our imports, representing our purchases from other nations, have enormously fallen off.
No wonder gold continues to come to us. No wonder that foreign holders of American securities refuse to part with them. No wonder that our 4 per cents are at a premium of 22 per cent in the open market in spite of war expenditures and an impending loan of half a billion dollars.
This country is getting rich at a rate utterly unmatched in history.

CAPT. B. B. DAVIS

Receives and at Last Joins His Company at Chickamauga.

He Arrived There Yesterday and the Boys Went Wild Over Him.

"Capt. B. B. Davis, of the city, who left as captain of company K, has recovered from the serious injuries sustained soon after his arrival at Lexington, by falling from a loft, and yesterday arrived at Chickamauga to take charge of his company.

The boys were simply overjoyed at the arrival of their captain, and he was tendered a rousing reception. There was the greatest enthusiasm among the boys. Capt. Davis, after being laid up for all these weeks in the hospital, was equally as glad to be with them again.

Lieut. Alf Stewart, who has been acting as captain during the illness of Captain Davis, made a good and a popular officer, and all the boys like him. He has been ill for some time past, but is now better.

Capt. Davis is now in command of his company, and his many friends will be glad to hear of it.

SOCIETY NOTES.

THE OAK.
There stands an oak half way up the mountain side
With gnarled and ancient arms stretched wide—
A sentinel eternal—
While years as leaves fell off and seasons died,
The vale's mute guardian watched in pride,
August, alone, supernal.

Love 'neath its gracious shadow one day brought
A youth and maid; his ardor sought
To prove his faith, his rapture.
With fervent blade two letters deep he wrought
In linked union, art love taught
A pledge their vows to capture.

"While stands the tree our names forever wed—
'I, Isabel, and 'F' for Fred—Nor time nor death can sever."
The maiden's subtler eye a symbol read
"A pledge of constancy." She said,
"That I am 'yours forever.'"
Came later to the oak a youth forlorn
His love a world apart, to mourn
His agonies endurance.
In cruel mockery scoffed the letters worn.
Still from their union hope was borne;
"Yet faithful," its assurance,

Hope left, returned to rage, at pride's command.
The mocking sign, when paused his hand,
His settled purpose swerving.
"Vain symbol, which youth's eager hope did brand,
Forever now as warning stand
To 'Youthful Folly' serving."

Stands yet the grim old oak half up the hill, While graven in its side lives still
A pledge by love begotten.
Dead as past seasons' leaves, the hope, the thrill,
A prophecy the words fulfill—
A sign for "Youth Forgotten!"
EDNAH ROBINSON.

EMBELLISHMENTS THAT JUNE-TIME FASHIONS DICTATE TO BEAUTY.

Possessors of fine lace should consider themselves fortunate. Chantilly, swiss and other fine lace, which form the main part of most fashionable gowns or are used in stunning style for evening wraps.
This is the time for cool, airy clothing. In the spring a young man's fancy may lightly turn to thoughts of love, but not so with the woman of today. With the warm days her fancy turns not lightly, but seriously to her supply of cool, diaphanous garments, so that she may brave the summer's heat with a smile and look as cool as a day in December, though the mercury boils over. Fashion this year certainly runs to the two extremes, the severest simplicity or the extremely elaborate.

Of the pretty gowns of the moment there is nothing so rigidly proper for dress occasions, calling etc. than figured grenadines.

Very fine embroidered batiste in cream and ecru are shown among the summer novelties for best wear. Sashes are certainly abroad in the land. Some are edged with lace applied, others with footings, ribbon frills and gauzy ruffles. All sashes are cut rounded at the ends. Everybody must be slim this season, if not you will have a sorry time. Everything is frills, organdies, dotted or flounced swiss muslins, satin striped or checked India lawn and batistes in pale yellows, willow green, sweet pea pink, Dresden blue, rose and violet, make most bewitching frocks with many frills. The stout woman, however, does not wear anything of the kind for they rob her of her height and add width.

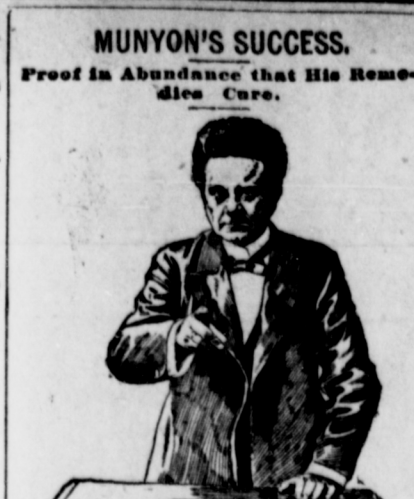

In the wash fabrics nothing makes up into suits so admirable as white pique. Truly elegant in the white pique is a collar of black satin and low double-breasted waist coat of the same. Over this pouches a full blouse of some becoming color, as blue, pink or buff, preferably buff. The reverses are not made of the satin, only the collar, just as velvet is put on a man's over coat. Dame Fashion says the white suit with the black satin is "swell," and if you have the right appreciation of that term you agree with her.
Unembroidered white pique skirts are among the novelties. You wear with these, the prettiest of all waists the tucked ones of white lawn. They are made strictly after the shirt-waist model, with starched cuffs and linen collar. Pearl cuff buttons close the sleeves and small thick-sewed-on pearl buttons are put down the front.

THE COUNCIL AND OTHER CURIOSITIES.

This morning's Register says: "Although the school board held a secret caucus last night to select a corps of teachers for the coming year, the Register, as usual, gives the list of the successful ones. A few changes were made, but an excellent corps was selected and will be satisfactory to people in general."
Such as the above is in accord with the boastful egotism of that paper, but it only serves to make it ridiculous in the sight of all sensible people. Everybody who knows anything about it knows that there has never in all its history been a "secret caucus" of the school board that the papers did not get the next morning. The fact is, some member of the board always gives it out. The board last night, however, by motion agreed to give the result to the press. That's how the Register came to get it.

The council last night flagrantly violated the law by refunding money that was legally collected and did not belong to it, but to the city and the taxpayers. It was in the viagara license matter. The case, briefly stated, is that the council, which is empowered to assess taxes, several years ago fixed the tax or license on firms that manufacture viagara at $25 per year. Things went on for some time, and about May 1 last, two local firms were warranted for failing to pay their license. In the meantime the council had passed a new ordinance exempting manufacturers from paying the $25 license, and when the case came up before Judge Sanders, one of the firms had already paid the license, which like the other was due nearly a year before the exemption ordinance was passed. Judge Sanders dismissed the case against the other firm on no particular grounds, which let it out of paying the $25 due the city, and which had been due it for a year. Then the man who had paid his license, which was right and just, and which he owed, raised a kick, and asked for his money back.

After dillydallying with it for several weeks, the committee finally reported last night against allowing the money, as it was legally due and legally collected, and the charter plainly says that no money legally collected shall be refunded. The council went back on the committee's report, and disregarded the advice of Acting City Attorney Hagby, and refunded the money in direct opposition to the law, which they said they would respect and enforce, when they went into office. The point in the case really is that the firm that was acquitted in the police court sharply through the charity and generosity of Judge Sanders, is still liable for the $25 due the city on last year's license, which it refused to pay under the old ordinance. The city can still legally collect it.

You must go away from home for news of home. Here's what the St. Paul (Minn.) Dispatch of recent issue said about Paducah: under the caption "Fanning Criminals."

"Occasions have been numerous heretofore for commenting upon the peculiar methods of restricting crime in the South. Extra legal means, such as lynching, have been most popular in that section. But the most peculiar manner of suppressing crime is the Paducah, Ky., means of checking burglary. In that town, according to the chronicle of the truthful Associated Press, forty or fifty burglaries have occurred of late. These occurrences naturally annoyed the inhabitants and led to harsh and unusual repressive measures. Burglary has always been a felony in Kentucky, but in Paducah it was also specially forbidden by the city ordinance. Still the evil spread, and then a curfew ordinance was passed, restricting the privilege of going about after dark. Yet the burglaries continued until suspicion fell upon three white men and eight negroes. These persons were immediately seized and then further proceedings were taken.
"The accused persons were not examined before a magistrate nor indicted by a grand jury. They were each and all given a good beating and sent out of town. This was the punishment of burglary, a term in the penitentiary, commuted to a whipping and eviction.
"The beauty of the Paducah penal code is its simplicity. Trials are brief and tedious delays (such as the late Hamlet denounced) are not permitted. The administration of justice is cheap, costing only a little time well spent and the price of a few rawhides; it is swift; it is certain; for the prisoner is always convicted, and it is always effective.
"Paducah can dispense with a regularly employed judge and the salary thereunto annexed, for a volunteer can do the business much better, and the county jail can be abandoned, and from Paducah no prisoners need be sent to the penitentiary. Paducah will have only one penal institution—a tannery."

Comment on the above is totally unnecessary. Where such a palpable fake could have originated can be explained only by the idiot who placed it in the above paper.

The city council last night proposed to purchase from the manufacturers a quantity of pipe that has been condemned by the sewer inspectors, at a reduction in price. The pipe will be used by the city, if the pipe man agrees to the terms, in the construction of storm water sewers.
The action of the council last night in voting to hold an adjourned meeting for the purpose of hearing the evidence in the Eades' bribery case, which will require two hours, was as senseless a thing as could have been done. The evidence, as Councilman Eades stated, was to be published in the city's official organ—in lieu of the latter's usual quota of plate, it is presumed—and it will be merely a waste of time for the councilmen to meet and have to listen to what they have doubtless already read. The question is, what are they going to do after they have read it? They can ask Mr. Eades to do no more than he has already done—to resign.

Argument

Is not necessary to convince a thinking person that money is thrown away when invested in a typewriter that has not passed its experimental period.
Years of hard, thoughtful effort and continual experimenting are necessary before reaching approximate perfection in a writing machine. Is it wisdom, then, for one to contribute to this cost of experiment?

Reputation Established

Years of experience, constantly increasing sales the world over—the natural result of typewriter excellence—is the unquestioned record of

THE SMITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER.

When you buy a Smith Premier you obtain a writing machine that is in advance of all others in points of improvement and durability. Do not pay for the costly experiments of others. ## OLD GLORY FOREVER!

In Humanity's Cause Our Flag is Unfurled!

"The conflict deepens. On! ye brave, Now rush to glory!"—Cuba save.
Brave patriots, all "your banners wave,
And charge with all your chivalry."

Our Atlantic's wave McKinley brave
Sends our noble seamen, unadorned, true,
A fair tale to save or find a grave,
And plant a new "red, white and blue."

"What higher aim can patriot know?
What destiny more grand?"
Than the soldier's fight for freedom's right,
To free a suffering land?

The Spanish Dons are long shod taste
Our "Uncle Samuel's" pills,
And freedom's bird shall proudly soar
In the Pride of the Great Antilles.

In war, as in peace, it will pay everybody

There Are Two Ways

Of getting glasses—one to go to a first-class optician and get what you need; the other, to go to a merchant who keeps spectacles and sells them so cheap, make a "grab in the bag," as it were, get a pair that don't fit you (although it may seem so for the moment), and run the risk of ruining your eyesight entirely—all for a very small difference in expense. If you need the services of a good optician we can serve you well and cheaply. No charge for examination.

A PADUCAH BOY

Who Has Risen to a Prominent Position in the Hawaiian Islands.

Henry Meyers Lived Here For Years—Now at the Head of the War Department.

Perhaps few people know that a Paducah boy is now at the head of the war department of Hawaii, with headquarters at Honolulu. He is Henry Meyers, and lived here for many years, at the old Myers homestead being on South Third street, near Tennessee.

In 1874 he and a young man named Monroe, at the advice and suggestion of Dr. J. G. Brooks, left Paducah to seek their fortunes in the Sandwich Islands. They went there and embarked in the sugar business, but after several years failed in business and Mr. Meyers, who always had a penchant for military life, went into the army as chief of staff. His failure in the sugar business is ascribed to his lack of interest in the work, and to the fact that his plantation was situated upon the mountain where it required two years instead of one to raise a crop. Part of the plantation he and his partner owns is now a portion of the vast possessions of Claus Spreckles.

The two men returned to America in or about 1890, and Monroe jumped into the lake near Los Angeles and was drowned. Meyers came on to Paducah, and was bookkeeper for Dreyfuss & Weil for a short time. After several months here, however, he longed for the old life, and returned to Honolulu. A few years ago he was heard of as chief of staff of President Dole, and now he is at the head of the war department there, the most prominent military position on the island.

His step-mother, a well known lady, still lives here, and is quite well known.

RECRUITS HERE.

Army Officers Here to get Recruits for the Army.

Capt. R. S. Murphy and Lieut. Geo. L. Shelton, of the Second Tennessee volunteers, arrived this morning and took rooms at the Palmer hotel. They are here to enlist recruits for the regular army.

Capt. Murphy and Lieut. Shelton are both former residents of Paducah. The former traveled for Thompson, Wilson & Co., of the city, but lived a long time in Fulton. Lieut. Shelton lived here up to 1890. Capt. Murphy lost his left arm, and was admitted to the regular service by act of congress two months ago, and is in the recruiting department.

Lieut. Shelton went down to Metropolis this morning to get recruits, but will likely return this afternoon. The officers expect to remain here three or four days.

Unluck has issued, for instance, no less than 200 varieties. The administration of this frightfully philatelic spot consisted, in 1889, of a governor and eight functionaries. The capital is a village of huts. The issue of needless varieties has even proved of considerable profit to some of our own possessions. Here is a curiosity, Guatemala in 1886 accepted the offer of a certain engineer to provide, free of charge, 2,000,000 postage stamps of a new design, on the understanding that the whole of the old issues should be handed over to him. The credit for originating this kind of dealing seems, however, to be due to the secretary of an engraving company. He binds himself for a period of ten years to supply yearly, free of charge, postage stamps to the different governments of South and Central America, as they may be required, or at least demanded, on condition that each yearly series differs in design. In return, the particular government undertakes to cede to the company any surplus stock that may remain in its possession at the end of the year, the company retaining the dies and plates for the production of such reprints as it may think fit to issue for any but postal purposes. It is necessary to point out that the collector cannot neglect any examples. To give one other instance, we may mention the issue of stamps of seven values by Haden Hickey, who styled himself "Prince James I." and claimed sovereignty over the island of Trinidad, in the South Atlantic. The island does not possess a single human inhabitant, and is almost inaccessible, being nothing more than a rugged rock, the home of gulls only. —London Daily News.

Saved for the Last Lap. A lady engaged a cab to convey her to Enston station, and urged the cabby to drive fast, as her time was limited. After proceeding a quarter of a mile at a funeral pace, the passenger warned the cabby to whip the horse, lest she should lose her train. He did so, but the speed soon subsided to the original pace. Again the lady remonstrated, saying: "Can't you whip your horse on some tender part to wake him up a bit?"

The jehu looked at her a moment, and replied, soberly: "Well, miss, I've hit the pore'oss all over 'is body, except 'is left ear, and I'm keepin' that for the Enston road." —Tit-Bits.

Tender-Hearted Butcher.

"It must have been a very tender-hearted butcher who was killing this lamb," said the Cheerful Idiot, pausing in the sawing of his chop. "Why?" kindly asked the shoe clerk boarder.

"He must have hesitated three or four years before striking the fatal blow." —London Liberal.

AN AFRICAN PRISON.

The inmates Move It Bodily to the Bar and Have Their Drinks.

Among some amusing anecdotes of his life in South Africa, Robert Ganthony, the author, tells the following: "One warm day I discarded my waistcoat and was off with my sketch-book and camera in search of copy, when a man stopped me and said: 'Hallo, Ganthony, how are you?' He was a perfect stranger, so I said: 'How did you know my name was Ganthony?' 'Well,' he replied, 'you have Ganthony written on your shirt, and as you look like a gentleman, I don't suppose you would wear anyone else's.' As he left smiling I had a dim consciousness that I had been pelted with a chestnut." On another occasion, while watching the corrugated iron prison at Johannesburg, he found after awhile that the prison had moved. Being naturally somewhat surprised, he awaited the denouement, and discovered that the prisoners inside were lifting it, and moving it towards a whisky bar a little way off. When they got near enough they had their drinks through the little window, and then moved the prison back again to the former spot. When the governor heard of it he said: "Not a bad idea! I can make those fellows mend the road now," which they do, the portion under repair being also under the roof of the prison. —Los Angeles Herald.

HURRAH FOR THE CHAMPION HEATER!

How dear to my heart is our snug little bathroom. Our refuge from sickness, discomfort or dust: Its marbles, its nickel, its neat-painted flooring, So shiny and free from all foulness and rust, But the best thing there is within that enclosure, The object that pleases us most of them all, That soonest can warm us when chilled by exposure, Is the good Champion heater that stands by the wall; The Champion gas heater, the nickel-plate heater, The nice, handy heater, so shiny and tall.

When the fires are all out and the children awake me With coughs or with croup, at once, with all speed, To light up the heater I straightway betake me, And find it is always a good friend indeed. For laundry, for sickness—a most pain relieving—For milk that is malted, best extract or tea, For hot water bags—why, 'tis past all believing, How handy a good Champion heater can be; The Champion gas heater, the nickel-plate heater—No living without one henceforward for me.
